Re: Submission by Tilt Renewables in response to the National Energy Guarantee Draft Design Consultation Paper

Dear Energy Security Board members,

Tilt Renewables thanks the Energy Security Board for the opportunity to provide a submission on the National Energy Guarantee Draft Design Consultation Paper dated 15 February 2018.

Tilt Renewables is a leading Australasian renewable energy developer and operator and has been an independent power producer in the NEM of more than 10 years. This experience has informed the attached submission.

Tilt Renewables is committed to supporting suitable a policy framework for the Australian energy sector, and would be happy to continue to support the Energy Security Board in the development of the National Energy Guarantee or any other aspects of energy policy.

If you wish to discuss any aspect of our submission further, please contact:
